3. General Disciplinary Provisions

- a. The parties recognize the authority of the Employer to suspend, discharge, or take other appropriate disciplinary action against Employees for just cause.

- c. Whenever possible, the Employer shall give the Employee advance notice of its intent to hold an investigatory interview. Upon request, an Employee shall be entitled to the presence of a Union Representative at an investigatory interview.

- d. If any disciplinary action is taken against an Employee, the Employee will receive a written notice of such action. A copy of the notice will also be provided to the Union.

4. Procedure for Unsatisfactory Performance

- a. In cases of unsatisfactory employment performance, the matter will be discussed with the Employee prior to any action being taken. A written summary of such a discussion will be available at the written request of the Employee provided the Employee's request is received within forty-eight (48) hours of the discussion; whenever the Employee requests such a summary, a copy of the document will also be provided to the Union.

- b. If, in the event of arbitration, the Arbitrator does not find for the Employer, the Arbitrator may make only a finding of fact and award pay but not reinstatement. Article 14 Employee Rights

1. Library Access: Employees will receive the following privileges at the University Libraries when they identify their status as Employees before checkout: the borrowing period for an Employee is one semester; Employees may borrow up to 50 items, and are exempt from ordinary overdue fines. 2. Mailboxes: Each department or unit shall make available a convenient receptacle at a designated location for Employees to receive University business correspondence and U.S. Mail. Where possible, each department or unit shall make available one (1) receptacle for each Employee, but no less than one (1) receptacle for every five (5) employees.
3. Departments will make arrangements for Employees to obtain texts when provided free of charge by the publisher. Any instructional materials required by the department chair or designee for a course being taught by the Employee and required of students taking the course will be provided or made available at no cost to the Employee.

10. Employees will be accorded priority in securing University housing in residence halls or family housing apartments (if deadlines are observed and vacancies permit).

Article 15

Grievance and Arbitration Procedures

1. Definition and Representation

A grievance is a written complaint and request for remedy involving an alleged violation of a specific provision(s) of the Agreement and filed using the procedure outlined below. The primary purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest level possible, equitable resolution of the grievance.

2. Informal Resolution of Workplace Concerns

Nothing contained in this article shall prevent the informal adjustment of any workplace concern, and the parties intend that, insofar as is reasonably possible, every workplace concern will be resolved between the employee(s) involved and the administrative agent(s) of Western immediately involved.

3. Grievants

The Union is responsible for determining when, in its judgment, there has been an alleged violation of the contract, and for filing grievances with the appropriate administrator(s) accordingly.

When more than one Employee has a grievance involving common facts and provisions of the Agreement, the Union shall process the grievance on behalf of all similarly-situated Employees, clearly specifying that it is a “Group Grievance.”

Where one or more extant grievances involve a similar issue, those grievances, by mutual agreement of the parties, may be held in abeyance without prejudice, pending the disposition of an appeal to Step Two or arbitration of a representative case.

4. Grievance Procedure

The specified time limits at each step of the procedure may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties involved at that step.

An actual verified receipt, time-stamped email, or postmark will be regarded by the parties as evidence of delivery and receipt for the purposes of determining whether time limits have been met.

- a. Initiation of Grievance. The Union may initiate a grievance by serving a written notice of it to the appropriate administrative agent (e.g., a grievance within a department shall be filed with the dean of the relevant college). A copy of any grievance shall be filed with the Director of Academic Collective Bargaining and Contract Administration. Such notice shall be clearly identified as a grievance and shall concisely state the facts upon which the grievance is based and when they occurred, specify the provision, article, and/or sections thereof within the Agreement that allegedly have been violated, specify the relief and remedy sought, and be signed by the grievance officer of the Union. Such notice shall be filed within thirty (30) calendar days after the occurrence of the event upon which the grievance is based. If the affected employee or the Union has no knowledge of the occurrence of the event within said thirty (30) calendar days, then such notice shall be filed within thirty (30) calendar days after the employee or Union had knowledge thereof or conditions were such that the employee or the Union should have had knowledge thereof.

- i.* In the event of an error in the identification of the appropriate administrative agent(s), the employer shall bear the responsibility of notifying the Union of the error and of routing the grievance to the appropriate administrative agent(s). Errors in the identification of the appropriate administrative agent(s), and the time entailed in correcting them, shall not be counted against the thirty (30) calendar day time limit for the initiation of a grievance.

b. Step One. Upon receipt of the written grievance, the designated administrative agent shall arrange a meeting to discuss the grievance with the appropriate representative(s) of the Union. The administrative agent may invite an associate to attend, and additional persons may be present by mutual agreement. This presentation by the Union and ensuing discussion shall be completed within fourteen (14) calendar days after the required initiation notice is received by the administrator. A written answer to the grievance shall be given to the Union by Western within fourteen (14) calendar days of that meeting. If the grievance is adjusted to the Union's satisfaction, the adjustment will be signed by the parties. One (1) copy thereof will be given to the Union, one (1) copy to the Director of Academic Collective Bargaining and Contract Administration, and one (1) copy will be retained by the administrator.

- i.* If the representative of Western fails to schedule a meeting within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the grievance, or to respond in writing to the grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days of the meeting, the grievance shall automatically advance to the next step of the grievance procedure. In the event of the failure to comply with the time limits on the part of the Union, the grievance shall be considered as having been withdrawn.

c. Step Two. If the grievance is not adjusted in Step One, the Union may appeal the grievance to the second step of the grievance procedure, provided such appeal is sought in writing, signed by the Union, sets forth the objection to the Step One answer, and, within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the Step One answer is presented to the Director of Academic Collective Bargaining and Contract Administration

- i.* If the representative of Western fails to schedule a meeting within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the grievance, or to respond in writing to the grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days of the meeting, the grievance shall be advanced to arbitration at the Union's option. In the event of the failure to comply with the time limits on the part of the Union, the grievance shall be considered as having been withdrawn.

d. Impartial Arbitration. Steps One and Two of the grievance procedure set forth in this Agreement shall be pursued to completion before any application for arbitration may be made, unless the parties hereto enter into a written waiver of such step or steps and agree to proceed directly to arbitration

A grievance, as defined in Section 1, which is not resolved at Step Two of the grievance procedure may be submitted to arbitration by the Union, provided that written notice of intent to arbitrate is received by the Director of Academic Collective Bargaining and Contract Administration within thirty (30) calendar days following receipt by the Union of the Step Two answer (or, as per the time limits set forth in Section 4.c.i.). Such notice shall identify the grievance, and shall set forth the provisions of the Agreement involved and the remedy desired.

- i.* Following written notice to the Director of Academic Collective Bargaining and Contract Administration, an arbitrator shall be selected from the rotating panel of arbitrators set forth in Section 4e below. If the arbitrator at the head of the queue is unable to schedule a hearing date within 120 days of the request for his/her services, the next arbitrator will be contacted, and so on until an arbitrator who can schedule the hearing within 120 days is identified. If the Arbitrator does not accept selection, the next Arbitrator on the panel will be contacted.
- ii.* ii. The Employer and Union shall jointly notify the Arbitrator of his/her selection, and upon acceptance by the Arbitrator, shall forward to the Arbitrator a copy of the grievance chain, the Union's notice of intent to arbitrate and a copy of the Agreement. If the Arbitrator does not accept selection, the next Arbitrator on the panel will be contacted.
- iii.* The Arbitrator shall fix the time and place for hearing the issue or issues submitted for decision. The hearing will be held in Kalamazoo, Michigan, unless the parties mutually agree to a different location.
- iv.* At the time of the arbitration hearing, both the Employer and the Union shall have the right to examine and cross-examine witnesses.
- v.* Upon request of either the Employer or the Union or both, a transcript of the hearing shall be made and furnished to the Arbitrator, with the Employer and the Union having an opportunity to purchase their own copy. The party requesting the transcript shall bear the cost of the Arbitrator's copy, unless it is mutually requested. In such a case, the cost shall be shared equally.
- vi.* At the close of the hearing, the Arbitrator shall afford the Employer and the Union a reasonable opportunity to furnish briefs if either party requests the opportunity.
- vii.* The jurisdictional authority of the Arbitrator is defined as, and limited to, the determination of any grievance as defined in Article 16, Section 1 submitted to him/her consistent with this Agreement and considered by him/her in accordance with this Agreement.

- viii.* The Arbitrator shall not have any authority to add to, subtract from, or otherwise modify this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall also not have the authority to order that a discharged Employee be reinstated or offered a new appointment, but rather any monetary remedy for wrongful discharge will be limited to the remaining unpaid portion of the Employee's appointment.
- ix.* The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be paid by the party not prevailing. The expenses of, and the compensation for, each and every witness and representative for either the Employer or the Union shall be paid by the party producing the witness or having the representative.
- x.* The Arbitrator shall render the decision in writing within thirty (30) calendar days following the hearing or the deadline for the submission of briefs, whichever is later.
- xi.* The Arbitrator's decision, when made in accordance with the Arbitrator's jurisdiction and authority established by this Agreement, shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the Employee or Employees involved.
- xii.* The provisions of this section do not prohibit the Employer and the Union from mutually agreeing to expedited arbitration of a given grievance or grievances

e. Panel of Arbitrators: Deborah Brodsky, Mark Glazer, Ruth Kahn, Maurice Kelman, Theodore St. Antoine, Donald Sugerman

5. Procedure for Disputes Over Employee Classification

In the event that the Union believes an employee has not been properly classified, and the employee's classification would be determinative of whether the employee is a member of the bargaining unit, the Union may request the convening of a special conference (as per Article 17) to discuss this matter. Should the special conference fail to resolve the matter, a grievance may be initiated at Step Two of the grievance procedure.

Article 16 Special Conferences

Special conferences on issues of mutual interest to Employees and the Employer may be arranged between representatives of the Union and of the Employer. The agenda and scheduling of the special conference will be determined by mutual agreement of the representatives of the Union and of the Employer.

Article 17 Hours and Class Size

1. Hours

An Employee with a full appointment will work no more than 20 hours per week, on average; approximately 300 hours total in a semester or 150 hours total in a summer session. Salaries and average hours worked for 1/2, 2/3, and 3/4 fractional appointments will scale accordingly, rounded up to the nearest quarter/quarter hour.

2. Class Size

- a. Class-size capacities for all courses in a department are determined in accordance with the faculty collective bargaining agreement.
- b. When scheduling Employees' course sections, departments will set class sizes in the same manner as for faculty.
- c. Departments will make known to Employees departmental procedures for adding additional students to class rosters.
- d. The special conference procedure (as set forth in Article 17) shall be made available to discuss Employee concerns regarding class size.

Article 18 Curriculum

1. The curriculum and the educational programs of Western Michigan University are established through the University Curriculum Review Process (UCRP).
2. Departmental curriculum committees and associated policy-making bodies are encouraged to solicit and consider Employees' input when re-organizing or reviewing courses taught by Employees.
3. Employees are encouraged to submit written comments and recommendations to departmental curriculum committees and associated policy-making bodies for their consideration.
4. Nothing herein precludes oral dialogue on class-specific or overall curriculum.

Article 19

Training and Professional Development

1. The Employer is responsible for establishing orientation and in-service training programs for all Employees. Such programs shall, at a minimum, provide training in the teaching of subject matter, an introduction to course goals, grading criteria and practices, and classroom procedures. Employees shall, as part of their regular duties, participate in such programs.
2. While such programs are important for all Employees, attendance will not be required for any Employee who is determined by the employing unit already to have the skills and experience equivalent to those provided in the program.
3. The Employer shall consider Employee input and participation in developing training programs. Employing units will consider Employee requests for additional training.
4. To gain feedback and increase Employees' effectiveness, employing units and the Graduate College will be encouraged to provide avenues for professional development at no cost to the Employee. Such avenues may include mentorship in pedagogy and class observation by faculty and/or peers.
5. If required training occurs during the defined work period of an Employee's employment, then time spent in training will be included as part of the hourly total in the Employee's workload. If required training occurs before the defined work period of an Employee's employment, the Employee will be compensated in salary at the hourly equivalent of the Employee's rate. Given a timely request by the Employee, the Employer will provide housing, if available, at the customary rates, to be paid by the Employer for Employees who attend training prior to the first day of the defined work period of an Employee's employment.
6. Employees will not be required to pay for mandatory training sessions.
7. Upon request, the Employer agrees to meet with representatives of the Union, under the auspices of Article 17, to receive input, comments and suggestions relating to the need for specific training programs, the content of programs offered or programs to be considered for development. In such meetings the Employer agrees to arrange for participation of members of the University community with appropriate expertise.

Article 20 Scope of the Agreement

1. This Agreement represents the entire agreement between the Employer and the Union. This Agreement shall supersede and cancel all previous agreements, between the Employer, the Union or Employees. Any agreement(s) that supplement this Agreement shall not be binding or effective unless reduced to writing and signed by the Employer and the Union.
2. No past practice, course of conduct, or understanding prior to the date of ratification which varies, waives, or modifies any of the express terms and conditions contained herein shall be binding upon the parties hereto unless made and executed in writing by the Employer and the Union.

3. The Employer and the Union acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. No provision of this Agreement, nor the right of either the Employer or the Union under the terms of the Agreement shall be changed or altered in any way unless such change or alteration is agreed to in writing between Employer and the Union. Therefore, the Employer and the Union, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily waives the right, and agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter covered in this Agreement.
4. Any agreement reached between the Employer and the Union is binding upon all Employees the bargaining unit, the Employer and the Union, and may not be changed by any individual or group of Employees, or unilaterally by the Employer or the Union.
5. Should any part or provision of this Agreement be rendered or declared illegal or invalid by operation of law or by decision of any tribunal of competent jurisdiction or if compliance with or enforcement of any provision should be restrained by such tribunal pending a final determination as to its validity, the remaining part(s) or provision(s) of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby. In the event any provision herein contained is so rendered invalid, upon written request the Employer and the Union shall enter into collective bargaining for the purpose of negotiating a mutually satisfactory replacement for such provision.

Article 21

Following such notice, negotiations will begin by October 1, 2017, unless mutually agreed otherwise, with the intention of reaching a successor Agreement prior to February 15, 2018.
